Steamship Disasters.

The loss of life by the foundering of the Central America is one of the most appalling in the annals of American steam navigation The nearest to it in extent was that of the Arctic Sept 27, 1854 by which about three hundred and fifty lives were lost The steamer San Francisco on her way from New York to San Francisco foundered Dec 25, 1853, with a loss of about two hundred lives, including one hundred and fifty United States troops The New York Journal of Commerce gives the following summary of the disasters which have befallen ocean steamships where there has been a loss loss —

Names	Fate	Valuation
President,	Never heard of	$350 000
Columbia,	All hands saved	300 000
Humboldt,	All hands saved	500 000
City of Glasgow	Never heard of	200 000
City of Paris,	All hands saved	300 000
Franklin,	All hands saved	480 000
San Francisco,	A few saved	200,000
Arctic	A few saved	700 000
Pacific,	Never heard of	680 000
Tempest	Never heard of	300 000
Central America	A few saved	*140,000
		$4 250,000

*Exclusive of about $1 600 000 in specie

The aggregate number of lives lost by these disasters was about seventeen hundred It is probable that nearly all these would have been saved had the steamers been properly built with water tight compartments

OLD WARREN REDEEMED Last year the Republicans had a plurality in Warren, of 30 votes This year Hon Manasseh H Smith has a majority of THIRTY EIGHT There were last year 13 votes for Patten—so that reckoning on a majority basis, Mr Smith gains 81 votes This is a grand overturn for one year
Bath Tribune

As Warren is Manasseh's residence it would naturally be expected that own pride would produce a considerable apparent gain in behalf of their own citizen Nevertheless the Tribune is obliged to resort to the old dodge of counting straight Whig votes against the party last year, and in its favor this year — The grand overturn in Warren consists in the fact that part of the hunkers having voted last year for Patten this year voted for Smith, —just as they have done all over the State — The fact is that in Smith's own town, throwing nearly 600 votes, he has only a meagre majority of 14, and the Republicans stand relatively as well within 31 votes as they did in the great turn out of last year—this too in an old democratic town which used to be good for 200 majority

Turning to the residence of the Republican candidate, we find that Mr Morrill has in Augusta three hundred and twenty majority over the combined hunkers, and makes a Republican net gain of seventy seven, on a total vote 449 less than last year

Which is the best exhibition of the homes of the candidates

"The Whigs of Waldoboro were always virtuous—they never could be seduced
Bath Tribune

Commentary Last year 449 of them voted for a Straight Whig candidate—this year every mother's son of them is found in the ranks of the pro-slavery democracy—and the Tribune hauls down the Whig banner and runs up the black flag of the nigger catchers — There's virtue for you

A SHIP OF BENT TIMBER The American Ship Timber Bending Company, whose works are at Green Point, Williamsburg, N Y have resolved to build a large ship of one thousand tons in which bent timber is to be substituted for natural sticks for frames, knees, futtocks top timbers &c thus putting to a practical test the merits claimed by their peculiar invention The keel is already cut out, and will be laid next week

A young man, 19 years old fell overboard from a steamer at Philadelphia on Wednesday A friend sprang to his rescue, but the drowning man clutched him so violently around the neck and arms as to paralyze him They were both drowned This agonizing spectacle took place within view of as many as fifty persons

AMERICAN BOARD OF COM OF FOREIGN MISSIONS A summary report of the proceedings of the recent session at Providence is commenced upon the first page of our paper to day It was furnished for us last week, but its publication unavoidably deferred

The American Congregational Union has recently made an appropriation for building six churches in Kansas and one in Nebraska

A son of Charles Taylor of Quincy, Mass while at play, threw a stone into a tree, and was killed by the falling of the stone upon his head.

METALIC QUALIFICATIONS With four metalic qualifications a man may be pretty sure of success. These are, gold in his pockets, silver in his tongue, brass in his face, and iron in his heart.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

THE GERMAN TRIO are to give another concert at Norombega Hall this evening. Their concert on Tuesday evening gave entire satisfaction, and we regret that more of our citizens were not present to enjoy it. These artists should be much better patronized, and we hope our people will generally turn out this evening to hear them.

The price of tickets has been reduced to 25 cents

Machias Rep.

NEW CHURCH ON MUNJOY Owing to the rapid increase of population on Munjoy's Hill, the need of more church accommodation in that vicinity has been for some time sensibly felt, and in consequence thereof, several enterprising citizens, residents in that flourishing portion of the city, have made arrangements for the formation of a new society, and the erection of a church edifice A suitable lot of land on St Lawrence street (opposite Sherbrooke) has been purchased, and the work of building has already progressed to the raising of the frame, which took place on Saturday last The building is to be of wood, and is intended to be large enough to accommodate about five hundred persons, and will be called the St Lawrence St Congregational Chapel It is expected to be finished in about two months —Portland Adv

FIRE IN PORTLAND A fire broke out in Morton Block Portland Tuesday afternoon, in a portion of the building occupied as a residence and boarding house by Mr Charles Hodgdon Mrs Hodgdon ran down stairs to see what the alarm was, leaving her infant child sleeping up stairs In her exertions to return for it she was badly burned Mr Andrew Newman of Portland succeeded in getting through the flames and restoring the child to its mother The firemen soon subdued the flames Mr Hodgdon's loss is about $200—and a millenery stock on the first floor was somewhat injured

ROBBERY —The house of Mr Neal, was entered on Monday afternoon, in the absence of the family and a portmonaie containing twenty dollars, stolen from the centre table —Portland Adv

The officers are as follows

During the shower on Tuesday morning last, the lightning struck the barn of Mr McKechnie, in Ripley, killing a pair of steers, but doing no other damage of consequence

The contract for building the new jail, at Augusta, has been given to Charles Webb, Esq, of Bath

LAUNCHED—from the yard of Messrs G F & J Patten in Bath, on Tuesday last, a fine ship of 975 tons, called the James F Patten

ACCIDENT Mr James Spencer, a worthy young man residing in Sidney, recently met with a serious accident in attempting to jump over the feeder of a thrashing machine, his foot slipping, was caught in the teeth of the machine and mutilated in a horrible manner, crushing the bones of the foot and ankle to such an extent as to render amputation of the leg necessary The operation was performed by Dr James M Bates, of Sidney, and he is now doing well

The brig Marine of Boston, which rescued so many passengers from the steamer Central America, is 215 tons register and was built at Castine, about 7 years ago This is the second instance in which the Marine has rescued those in distress from impending death About a year ago last winter, she fell in with the ship Seaman of Baltimore on fire, and took off all on board, about 35, and landed them safely

SORGHUM AND ORDINARY CORN No doubt there is much saccharine matter in the Chinese Sorghum but it partakes largely of the nature of the Indian corn, and no doubt is very much like it An experiment has been lately tried, which has been communicated to the public by Mr George S. Mintzi, by which a comparative result may be determined — This gentleman has tried both kinds, and from the two samples of the syrups the following facts may be determined

He took eight corn stalks, cut off at the root and at the ear, crushed them in a cider mill and pressed the juice out with his hands A quart of sap was thus obtained, which after boiling thirty minutes, yielded one pint of beautiful syrup. The Chinese sugar cane was subjected to the same process, and yielded about the same quantity of syrup, but not so thick nor of so fine a flavor as that made from the common Indian corn.

Incidents of the Recent Disaster.

The following are some of the incidents related by those rescued from the Central America

The greater portion of the passengers were returned miners, some coming hither to invest the capital they realized But as the storm continued to rage, less and less of gold was thought of, and when, on Saturday morning, it became evident that they were likely at any moment to be buried in the waves, wealthy men divested themselves of their treasure belts and scattered the gold upon the cabin floors, telling those to take it who would, lest its weight—a few ounces or pounds—carry them to their death Full purses, containing in some instances $2000, were laying untouched on sofas Carpet bags were opened by men, and the shining metal was poured out on the floor with the prodigality of despair. One of the passengers, who has fortunately been rescued, opened a bag and dashed about the cabin $20,000 in gold dust, and told him who wanted to gratify his greed for gold to take it. But it was passed by untouched as the veriest dross Capt Badger, who was saved, lost $17 000 in gold But a young man, named Cauldwell, saved on brig Marine, brought 20 pounds of gold dust to Norfolk

Joseph M B asford says—"I am satisfied from what I afterwards learned, that had Ashby (the Chief Engineer) immediately went to work in endeavoring to remedy the difficulty with the engines, he might have got them to work again, and saved the vessel" He also says—'I know two of the passengers of high social and political associations, who refused to work, but got alarmingly drunk, so much so that their more sober companions had to put them in their berths. In that condition they lay when the steamer sank'

When the Empire City took on board the saved from the brig Marine, one of them described the sending off of the women and children from the Central America to the brig

"Sir, said our informant, "500 men with death yawning before them at any moment, stood solid as a rock, nor made a movement for the boats until the women and children had been all safely transported to the brig, after which about 40 of the crew and male passengers, in a few trips, reached the latter vessel before the steamer went down'

The captain of the bark Ellen, shortly before falling in with the wrecked passengers of the Central America, and while standing on the deck of his vessel, was violently struck in the face by a bird which was flying past, and shortly afterwards the bird struck him again, when he caught it He was deeply impressed with the circumstance, and immediately altered his course two points In a few minutes after having done so, the bark went into the midst of the exhausted swimmers of the lost steamer

Various Items.

SLIGHT MISTAKES The Raleigh Christian Advocate apologizes for several errors which crept into that paper during the sickness and absence of the editor The following is one, "Rev J H Brent in an able article on education, was made to violate grammer and decency by speaking of the common people as 'them asses' It is due to him to say he wrote it 'the masses' The letter m stepped back to see its next neighbor The same error occurred in the London Punch some years ago, but the editor on reflection concluded that the mistake was too slight to demand correction, and so permitted it to stand

A STEP SON Some time ago we were relating to our family the fact of a friend having found upon his door step a fine little male infant whom he had adopted, when one of the "olive branches remarked

'Dear pa, it'll be his step son won't it?' We thought it would decidedly

'I'm living on hopes" said a young clerk 'Capital idea while provisions are so high,' said a young lady.

The quickest way to make "eye water is to run your nose against a lamp post.

SCEPTICAL—VERY' Mr Dubois is so sceptical that he won't believe even the report of a cannon.

DISINTERESTED BENEVOLENCE. A charity sermon was once commenced by the Dean of St Paul's as follows "Benevolence is a sentiment common to human nature A never sees B in distress without wishing C to relieve him"

Matrimony and dry goods are generally intimately connected, but seldom after the fashion of the Orleans Advertiser, which makes the following editorial announcement 'Mr N S Butler, one of our most enterprising merchants, and Miss Libbie A Wade were united in the bonds of matrimony at the First Presbyterian church in this village, on Tuesday morning last The happy couple started the same day for New York, where the bridegroom intends purchasing a larger stock than ever, for net cash'

Home.

This touching little tribute to "Home," is from the pen of Rev Wm Croswell

I knew my father's chimney top,
Though nearer to my heart than eye,
And watched the blue smoke reeking up
Between me and the winter sky

Wayward I traced the homeward track
My wayward youth had left with joy,
Unchanged in soul! I wandered back,
A man in years, in heart a boy

I thought upon its cheerful hearth,
And cheerful heart's untainted glee,
And first of all I'd seen on earth,
This was the dearest spot to me

A GUILTY CONSCIENCE A man travelling in the cars of the Boston and Maine rail road, stopped at the Newmarket station, and left his valise in the care of the station agent while he made a call at some place The agent set the valise down on the track of the road and forgot it, as is supposed But recollecting it after a couple of hours, and looking for it, it could not be found and no clue to its whereabouts could be ascertained But the conscience of the person who took it would not, it seems, permit him to appropriate it, although the contents were said to be worth $1,500 On Friday last, the valise was found in the place where it was left, with its contents all safe

"STRAIGHTENING THE BACK" It is a custom in Berwickshire, England, among women workers in the field, when their backs become much tired by bowing low down while singling turnips with short shanked hoes, to lie down, their faces upon the ground, allowing others to step across the lower part of their backs, on the lumber region, with one foot several times, until all pain of fatigue is removed Burton, in his "First Footsteps in East Africa," narrates a very similar custom in females who lead the camels, on feeling fatigued, and who "lie at full length, prone, stand upon each others back, trampling and kneading with their toes, and rise like giants refreshed" This custom is called "jogei" in Africa, in England it is "straightening the back."

THIRTY SEVEN PERSONS POISONED Augusta, Ga, Sept. 20. On Sunday last, in Pike Co, Ala., a family of 37 persons was poisoned by the negro cook, who mixed arsenic in their food. Six are already dead, and the others are in a critical condition.

The family is that of Thomas Arasell, overseer.

DOMESTICS' VIEWS OF BOSTON "Doesticks," as we find in the columns of the New York Picayune has been "on a bender" in Boston Of that famous "city of notions" he says —

"It is crookeder than nine acres of ram's horns, and has got more corners than a cord of cross cut saws' * * * "It looks as if first-rate material for an excellent city had been melted and poured through a seive on a side hill and left to cool

"But there is more civility, kindness and attention shown to strangers here than I have experienced in any city I have ever visited, I have been here two days, and have consequently asked about eight hundred questions, to every one of which I have received a civil answer, and been treated as if I was a respectable homo, and not an inquisitive nuisance — I've received honest change every time I've bought anything—I've met a great many little boys, not one of whom has set a dog on me, or pelted me, or told me to "Go in lemons,' or called me an 'Old Buffer,' or consigned me to that place of very warm temperature with which the boys of our own city appear to be prematurely acquainted This latter omission was a great relief, for in New York a man is so often told by youngsters to 'Go to —, the place unmentionable, that he might naturally suppose the juveniles were all employed by Satan to recommend his accommodations to strangers, or that they owned building lots in that torrid locality, and from interested motives were anxious to encourage immigration

The houses don't run to seed here as in New York, few of them grow to be more than four or five stories high. The principal productions of the city are tandem teams, hackney coaches and brown bread The drays are a curiosity, being made like the city cars, with a joint in the middle to turn sharp corners A Boston dray is about as long as an average Boston street, and when used at night it is lighted with gas for the accommodation of the driver Three or four horses, placed tandem, drag this ponderous machine—they are harnessed in this manner that they may be able to pass each other, the streets being exceedingly narrow

You know that in Cincinnati they measure everything by hogs and pigs For instance they would say that the Picayune office is about a hundred pigs from the city hall, meaning that a hundred pigs placed in a line would extend that distance—in the same way a Cincinnatian would say, that the Astor House is about twenty hogs from the Museum, or seventy pigs from Stewart's Well gauging Boston by Cincinnati measurement I should say that "Washington street is about four hogs wide, "Tremont' street about eight or nine pigs, and the generality of the streets, where the drays are most in use are nowhere more than a hog and a shoat, or three pigs and a couple of roosters in width This is the reason why the vehicles are so long and narrow, and the horses are harnessed one before the other

Nobody is ever in a hurry in Boston but the people go about as respectably slow as if the city was attending its own funeral

The hotel waiters here are an anomaly—they positively bring you what you ask for, and are so modest about suggesting fees, that I really think their wages are paid by the proprietors of the houses instead of the guests, as is the fashion in New York This is really very comforting For a man to order roast lamb and green peas, with a certainty that he will not be served with fried pork and onions, or to send for soup with a probability of getting it, is a sensation at once, novel and refreshing to an individual who has ever sojourned at a hotel in Gotham Codfish is not so prevalent here as I had been led to expect—I saw none in the Frog Pond on the Common—nor, although I was here on Sunday, did every aristocratic mansion give out the appetizing odor of baked beans

Lager Beer is comparatively unknown here, and I was compelled to submit to a short allowance of my favorite beverage I could find but two kegs of it in Boston, when I had finished those, I put on my hat and went to Cambridge, thinking of the German predilections of my friend Longfellow, and trusting that he would have a supply, but Hank was just out—out of town, and I did not see him'

SCHOLARSHIP VS COMMON SENSE An article in the Boston Traveller gives several curious tales illustrative of the want of common sense that is sometimes found in persons of the highest mental culture Among them we note the following

'A professor in a New England College, has long been distinguished for the little he knew or cared about secular things One day, as he was going to pass the store, his wife sent for some coffee He accordingly called for the coffee, when the merchant asked 'How much?' He replied, 'they did not tell me, but I should think a bushel would be enough The trader thought the professor was deranged, and related the matter to the doctor to obtain his opinion. 'He only wants common sense,' said the physician

A minister who had earned a good reputation for composition, wanted to prune a tree in the front yard He had plenty of good sense in judging of rhetorical excellencies, but it was quite another thing to prune a tree, but he had energy and perseverence, and what others had done, he thought he might do himself So at it he went, and limb after limb, that he could reach from the ground fell — There was one branch of considerable size, hanging over the front gate, which had long been in the way How should he cut it off? He mounted the tree, got astride of the doomed limb, facing the trunk, and proceeded to saw it off directly before him A few minutes of persevering endeavor accomplished his purpose, and down the branch went, bearing saw, sawyer and all, with a thundering crash The sawyer lodged upon the picket fence, almost miraculously delivered from being pierced through, but much profited by this additional lesson in the school of experience He could plan a sermon, but he had no judgment about pruning a tree so as to save his own neck

A young man of education and refinement was about to be married. His whole life had been spent in the school room, and he was poorly acquainted with the world and its ways His tenement was secured, and was soon expecting to introduce his bride into it Carpets were needed for the rooms, and he had already spoken for them. On going to the city, however, some days before, he forgot to take the size of the rooms. He promised to send the exact measurement to the merchant on his return What was the surprise of the trader on the following day, at receiving a couple of poles by express He could scarcely understand what it meant at first, but an accompanying note informed him that they were the exact measurement of the aforesaid rooms — we need not say that the trader was better pleased with the intelligence than with the common sense of his customer.

The Albany Journal alludes to the newly elected Governor of this State in the following terms of deserved compliment;

LOT M MORRILL —Among the most gratifying results of the recent Republican triumph in Maine, is the election of Hon. Lot M. Morrill as Governor. Mr. M. is justly regarded as one of the most promising statesmen of New England Those who know him well, without regard to political bias, hold him in the highest esteem for his manly character, brilliant talents, and liberal principles We congratulate the Republicans and the people of the Pine Tree State on their choice of Chief Magistrate.

ANECDOTE OF JOHN RANDOLPH. He was travelling through a part of Virginia in which he was unacquainted During the time he stopped a night at an inn near the forks of a road The innkeeper was a fine gentleman, and no doubt one of the first families of the Old Dominion Knowing who his distinguished guest was, he endeavored during the evening to draw him into conversation, but failed in all his efforts But in the morning, when Mr. Randolph was ready to set out, he called for his bill which on being presented, was paid The landlord, still anxious to have some conversation with him, began as follows

"Which way are you travelling, Mr Randolph?'

"Sir?' said Mr Randolph with a look of displeasure

"I asked,' said the landlord, "which way are you travelling?'

"Have I paid you my bill?'

"Yes.'

"Do I owe you anything more?'

"No"

"Well, I'm going just where I please, do you understand?"

"Yes"

The landlord by this time got somewhat excited, and Mr Randolph drove off, but to the landlord's surprise, in a few minutes sent one of his servants to enquire which of the forks of the road to take Mr Randolph not being out of hearing distance, the landlord spoke at the top of his voice, "Mr Randolph, you don't owe me one cent, just take which road you please It is said that the air turned blue with the curses of Randolph —Norfolk News

Cyrus W Field has written to the London Times in response to statements in that journal in regard to the availability of the Atlantic cable for the Indian telegraph

Mr Field says, after minute examination by electricians and others, that the reported generation of heat in the cable is false, as no heat exists in the holds of the Agamemnon or Niagara beyond what is natural that the cable is as perfectly through the whole length as when first put on board ship, and that there is [illegible] the slightest apprehension of any injury [illegible] experiments at a temperature of [illegible] Fahrenheit and extreme pressure weight having been recently resorted to with very satisfactory results He also says, as regards the sale of the cable, that the suggestion did not come from the Atlantic Company and when offers were made, they only consented to enter into them on condition that they could contract for a similar one, to be made and ready for them in time to secure its being laid at the earliest practicable moment in the Spring

Mr Field briefly disposes of other false insinuations against the company by asserting that they have nothing to conceal, and all their acts are open to public scrutiny

The money article of the London Times contains extended remarks in regard to the crisis in New York and American securities generally says the conjectured amount of American securities held in England is from eighty to a hundred millions sterling and deprecates the apathy exhibited by capitalists as to the management of railroad affairs It concludes as follows

SECOND DESPATCH,

Matters in Kansas.

ST LOUIS Sept 23

The proclamation of Gov Walker, relative to the October election in Kansas is received While admitting that injustice is exhibited in the apportionment which excludes fifteen counties from participation in the election, the Governor attempts to exculpate himself from blame by declaring that only four days remained after his arrival in the territory to make the apportionment, that he did not know there existed a law requiring him to make the apportionment, therefore the duty devolved upon others He expresses the opinion that no one can vote except those who are qualified under the territorial laws of the 20th of Feby last Also that under this law the territorial tax is not a qualification for a voter

Recommended by the principal Physicians in all our Cities and by all who are acquainted with their merits throughout the world

There are living witnesses, in almost every town village and hamlet throughout the country who unhesitatingly say DR SMITH S SUGAR COATED PILLS have saved my life

Most of the Hospitals in New York have given these Pills a preference over more than twenty other kinds that have been tested and many eminent Physicians in the United States use them in their practice

Dr J M STURTEVANT of Lowville N Y a practical physician says I consider the Sugar Coated Improved Indian Vegetable Pills as an excellent medicine, and use them in my practice

Dr McVICAR of Boonville Oneida Co, N Y, says Say to your Agents I consider them an excellent Pill, and use them in my practice

If the Blood becomes impure it is traced to stoppage of the natural drains of the system viz of the bowels—the lungs, kidneys and skin — The blood and intestines must relieve themselves of all their worn out particles and poisonous humor which must go through the channels that nature has designed
